

German Language II

Prof Maren Sprick

Course Objective

The main content is to understand different topics and extract relevant information from them. A broad spectrum of texts will be understood, including both shorter texts (advertisements) as well as longer, complex factual texts, commentaries, and reports. Clearly structured oral presentations on general and current topics.

Taking a stand and presenting one's own viewpoints. Active participation in discussions.

Course Content

Taking into account the basic grammar, thematic texts, reports, and newspaper articles will be analyzed. Grammar knowledge will be deepened and expanded. City portraits, discussions, book reviews, and speaking skills are thematic content.

Material

Tipps neu (Elisabetta Difino, Paula Fornaciari)

Thematic texts will be provided as copies to the students.

Examination

Written and oral