

Public law institutions

Prof. Claudio Arria

Objectives

- Acquire knowledge of the organizational principles of the State and public bodies (national, regional, municipal)
- Identify legislative, executive, and judicial powers
- Identify citizens' rights
- The Constitution. Knowledge of the sources of administrative law. Administrative measures and procedures
- The relationship between public law and economic activities
- The course aims to enable students to appreciate the importance of relationships with the public administration and the essential relevance of our Constitution.

Seminars and written tests are very useful in achieving this goal.

Contents

The State. Citizens' rights and freedoms and public organization in constitutional law. The elective system. The separation of powers. The Government. Parliament. Economy/State

Regions and autonomous regions.

The EU and European sources.

Administrative provisions and their development procedures.

General framework of judicial powers.

Teaching methods

Ex cathedra or remote lectures

Seminars for groups (with final student report)

Two written tests with short-answer questions to be considered for the final exam.

Final oral exam.

Office hours

Students may request to meet with the instructor from time to time if necessary during lectures at the University. Office hours are Tuesdays at 6:00 PM, subject to prior notification by the student. Students may also contact the instructor directly remotely.

Bibliography

Recommended text (as a textbook)

- Barbera - Fusaro Public Law Course, Il Mulino, 23rd Edition 2024, or the latest edition

For reference: Bin Petruzzella, Giappichelli Public Law 2020, and texts already recommended for the library.

Additional works will be indicated during the course.

Exam

Oral